

I absolutely have the right to not be bothered by telemarketers in my home. It's an invasion of my privacy to have these people bothering me. I have better things to do than argue with them. If they want to call me in my home they can pay my phone bill and my mortgage and the property taxes...until then leave me alone!